

Congratulations Claire Koeneman!

We are pleased to announce that Claire Koeneman has won “Best Executive- Service Businesses” in the 6th Annual Stevie Awards for Women in Business. The Stevie Awards for Women in Business is an international competition recognizing the accomplishments of outstanding women executives, business owners, and the organizations they run.

Claire Koeneman, President of the Financial Relations Board (FRB) and General Manager of MWW Group’s Midwest Region, has focused her career on helping public and private clients achieve financial, strategic and business goals. She is known for her sophisticated C-suite advice, refined people skills and deep expertise in financial and corporate communications, public relations and media. CEOs and CFOs across the country – and across the world – seek her counsel as they make critical decisions about how to build their reputation in the financial markets, convey the strength of their executive team and effectively communicate their assets, both tangible and intangible. Claire also serves as a trusted advisor to some of the leading companies in the world, be it working on a major M&A deal that needs to be communicated to multiple stakeholders or strategizing how to communicate earnings to the markets for optimum results. Proving herself as a thought leader in today’s trying times, Claire has authored numerous white papers and acted as an industry spokesperson, quoted frequently in financial and trade press. Throughout all of her work with FRB and MWW Group, Claire balances her work successes with devotion to her family and philanthropic work.
